

Such Were Some of You

1 CORINTHIANS 6:9-11

A Warning

- ▶ Do not minimize sin
 - ▶ If our minds are not filled by Biblical truth, there is a danger that they will be filled instead by lies, by error, by deception.

A Warning

- ▶ Do not minimize sin
- ▶ Be careful not to adjust our convictions in order to accommodate sin.
 - ▶ First we ignore or forget basic truth about sin
 - ▶ We begin to listen to lies
 - ▶ We adjust our conviction to accommodate sin

We start to adjust our convictions, our doctrine, to make room for our morality.

Sin, at first, is overlooked and then it's tolerated and then it's indulged. Then it is positively affirmed, not as sin any longer but as a good thing until the real sinner here is the apostle Paul .

Eternity is at stake!

What is the relationship between sexual sins and idolatry?

The Depth of our Sin

When sin enslaves us, it becomes our identity.

And when it becomes our identity, we are excluded from the kingdom of heaven.

A Reminder of Grace

- ▶ “Such were some of you.”
- ▶ “You were washed.”
- ▶ No one is beyond the grace of God.
- ▶ God will change you.
