WORSHIP.

What is your prophecy for the future?

They say that the two strongest motives to behavior are love and fear. I am sensing a lot of fear in people right now. Many of them are Christians. Ed Welch says, "All fears are prophecies about the future." We need to remember that the list of things to fear is endless.

Here are some common fears from that endless list:

- Fear of the utter moral collapse of the surrounding culture
- Fear of economic collapse and chaos
- Fear of viruses, plagues, ill health, and so on.

How do we ward off fear?

We turn to the Lord. And consider the greatest promise of all: "I will never leave you nor forsake you" (Heb. 13:5). Our sins are what keep us from our God, but now the perfect High Priest has made the perfect sacrifice and, having made atonement for sins, He sat down. Sacrifice for sin is done. We are guaranteed His presence. We will not face our fears alone.

Included in this promise is that He will give us the daily grace we need. The Old Testament image behind this is the gift of manna. It was enough for the day but not to be stockpiled for tomorrow lest we trust in our stockpiles. Tomorrow will find new mercies, fresh manna, and abundant grace.

His presence assures us that we will "receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need" (Heb. 4:16). All we have to do is

ask. Promised grace renders our fearful forecasts obsolete. Even if we are right in our predictions, which we usually are not, we cannot predict the grace that will be poured out on us on that future day

So: "Fear Not"

Blessings,
Jarred

The phrase "do not be afraid" is written in the Bible 365 times

That's a daily reminder from God to live everyday being fearless

FEATURED MINISTRY

At Providence, we desire to see every person in a healthy CommUnity LifeGroup (CLGs).

CLGs are gatherings of individuals of all ages and stages of life that come together on a regular basis to build a community. We accomplish this by sharing in Bible study, encouraging one another, through our service to one another, and as we pray together.

REQUIREMENTS FOR LEADERS:

- First and foremost, one must be a member.
- They only happen quarterly, but one must attend our leaders' training meetings.
- We take our teachings seriously, and to avoid any

More than a Bible Study!

OUR COMMUNITY LIFE GROUPS ARE WHERE FAITH, LIFE, AND COMMUNITY INTERSECT!

CLGs are the “second level” of discipleship. Sunday mornings are where we gather to hear the Word preached; CLGs are where we take the Word and apply it to our lives.

PURPOSE:

- To grow in faith through Bible study, prayer, missional outreach, and fellowship as we obey the Great Commandment to love God and love our neighbor
- Follow the Great Commission to share the Good News and serve others
- Forge relationships and through those relationships, real change begins to occur as we exhort one another to Christ-likeness.

WAYS TO GET INVOLVED IN CLG MINISTRY:

- Be a new facilitator—If you can direct a conversation and feel comfortable speaking in front of small groups, you can facilitate.
- Open your home to others—if you have the gift of hospitality, but don’t feel called to teach, you can host.
- Join a CLG—For folks who want to go deeper in their relationships, to grow spiritually by connecting relationally.

confusion as to what Providence believes and teaches, our leaders must be approved by the Elders of PBC.

FINDING A CLG:

We currently have several CLGs available. Our aim is to make it as easy as possible to get involved. Your experiences and insights are invaluable to helping in the discipleship process. As we rub elbows with one another, dealing with real-life issues as a family, we learn patience, humility, trust, and acceptance.

Find one that appeals to you based on:

- Location
- Topic
- Leader
- Meeting day and time
- Whether childcare is available

TIME COMMITMENT:

- Most groups meet for 90 minutes—You can also take into account any study you do in anticipation of your group’s discussion time.
- Many meet twice per month, some meet weekly, and some on specific days.
- Our CLG Leaders typically prepare an additional 1-4 hours.

Growing spiritually doesn’t happen when we know what Jesus says, it happens when we apply what He says. Application happens best within the context of community.

Kids Ministry

Ministry Leaders:

The Providence Bible Church Kids Ministry serves all children, age 4 through 5th Grade, and encompasses many different areas.

AREAS OF SERVICE INCLUDE:

- Kids Sunday School

- Decorate— be creative with bridal/baby shower ideas, games, etc
- provide a "blessing box" for the ladies in the church to share their favorite scripture or advice for the expectant bride/mother
- Set up during church and clean up following the showers

Audio Visual Lighting Ministry

Ministry Leaders: Wayne Christensen & Bryce Dutter

The primary responsibilities of the AVL Team is to provide technical expertise and team leadership for the church's sound, media, video, and stage lighting. The AVL Team is also responsible for audio/video technical and creative development, production, and training related to the live/post-production audio/visual needs of PBC.

The AVL Team ensures that the worship and A/V ministries continue to grow in effectiveness and quality of excellence in alignment with the church's vision, mission, and strategic objectives.

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS & OTHER REQUIRED SKILLS:

- Be a member of PBC or seeking membership.
- Spend time in prayer and study of God's Word on a daily basis.
- Be a team player who can both lead a team of leaders as well as be on a team of leaders.
- Discern needs and respond appropriately, sensitively, and proactively.
- Act as a catalytic leader and self-starter who not only gets things done but makes things happen.
- Multi-tasks with a high capacity to juggle a lot of things simultaneously.
- Dependable and reliable.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Skilled in creating and mixing quality sound in large venues using digital mixing equipment (Yamaha TF3).

- Comfortable and proficient in working with a variety of audio, video, media, and lighting equipment.
- Proficient (or willing to become proficient) in Proclaim, Open Broadcaster Software, Premiere Pro, Planning Center, Mac OS, Windows OS, etc.
- Skilled in all levels of video production (pre-production, production, postproduction, camera operation, editing, motion graphics, sound design, color correction, etc.).
- Able to work in a rapidly changing environment with multiple priorities.
- Be able to troubleshoot issues that arise either during the week or on Sunday mornings.
- Be passionate in teaching others about AVL and the importance of the equipment used on Sunday mornings that help to create the worship services.

SKILLS/QUALIFICATIONS:

- Possess a high level of technical skill and proficiency.
- Be familiar with current technology in lighting, audio, graphics, and video; stay on top of trends in technology.

Tech Team Ministry

Ministry Leader: Busdiecker, Christensen, Dutter, Marcum, Moura

The Tech Team works within the needs of our computer applications including planning, setup, training and attending necessary meetings for original discussions. Being involved with the documentation process for our entire church to ensure we have a complete write-up of all technical systems.

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS & OTHER REQUIRED SKILLS:

- General computer knowledge (Ability to perform your own anti-virus scans, run your own system updates, browse websites safely without compromising your own computer and knowledge about routers, switches, setting up their own home router, firewalls.....just overall nothing detailed is necessary.)
- Discernment (Proverbs 15:14) Overall we need those willing to listen and not act impulsively.
- Skills within networking
- Confidence, it's not helpful to have someone constantly quiet so we do need someone capable of speaking for themselves.

Landscaping Ministry

Ministry Leaders: Hugh and Carol Eggborn

The Landscaping Committee works for the church. Following the major changes to the shrubbery in design and replacement in 2020, the Landscape Committee's focus in 2021 is to maintain the current design, with some minor work in areas not addressed in 2020.

We are a fellowship of people who learn from each other in order to improve our home landscapes. So, come and join us. We love dirt/we love plants/we love people who get dirty working with plants.

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS & OTHER REQUIRED SKILLS:

- It involves a Month by Month work schedule/plan by the type of plant in the landscape. It is comprised of planned activities needed for that month, planting (thinning, relocation, replacement and new plantings), pruning, mulching, watering, fertilizing and pest and disease control.
- The work is generally completed based on the month of the year.
- Landscape maintenance cannot necessarily wait for a Saturday workday, we need people who can work during the week, as well as the people who can only work on weekends or evening.
- Pest and disease control need to be done when it happens.
- Pruning must be completed at specific time of the year based on the plant/shrubs type and before we complete mulching and fertilizing.

Timing is everything.

Kitchen Ministry

Ministry Leader: Jan Doucet

The most important function of this ministry is to provide a friendly and delicious place to enjoy PBC'S FELLOWSHIP MEALS, where we encourage people to meet the newer members of PBC by chatting and sitting with "strangers" during the meals. Volunteers at the kitchen counter are happy to make suggestions, reinforcing whatever Pastor mentions from the pulpit that Sunday.

Fellowship Meals are on hold until further notice.

A sign-up sheet can be found in the foyer at the beginning of the year where you can let us know if you:

- a. Want to be in charge or
- b. Want to volunteer as a helper under an experienced person during these meals

Training and/or instruction is provided if requested. Start out as a helper 2 to 3 times and then, when confident, be in charge.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES for person in charge:

- Check the table set-up and work with Frank Williams ahead of time
- Organize and layout food tables to flow as congregants enter gym
- Keep an eye on all the foodstuffs — food is on table in a timely manner, empty dishes are removed, and spaces replenished as needed
- See what needs doing and work with volunteers to do it

OTHER AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY:

- Arrange funeral and wedding receptions for Hospitality Ministry (Leader, Becky East)
- Buy supplies for the Kitchen Ministry, Bridge Cafe*, and SOUL*
(*have their own budgets, only shop for paper supplies and a few food items)

We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully. —ROMANS 12:6-8

Missions Ministry

Ministry Leaders: Bill White

The committee oversees PBC efforts to support missions and ministries both here in Culpeper and around the world. This involves communicating regularly with the missions we currently support, and evaluating new missions we may want to take on.

One example is our missionaries, Mike and Keila Dawson who bring the word of God to the Yanomamo people of Venezuela. The Yanomamo Indians are considered today to be one of the most primitive people groups in the world. They live deep in the jungles of the Amazon rainforest in Southern Venezuela and northern Brazil.

Mike is the son of missionaries, Joe and Millie Dawson, and grew up in the Venezuelan jungles. His focus is Bible study and teaching men's discipleship to train and encourage Yanomamö leaders and believers. He also takes frequent missionary trips to nearby villages. He is an avid pilot and has founded Mission Padamo Aviation and Support, which assists missionaries and indigenous people of Amazonas, Venezuela. Mike has written several books including "Growing Up Yanomamo", and "I Can See the Shore". Keila is director of a Yanomamo school and focuses much time and energy on training the Yanomamö teachers, creating materials for the school, and teaching the children in both Yanomamö and Spanish.

QUALIFICATIONS AND TIME COMMITMENT:

- Qualifications— are a heart for missions and be a church member
- Time Commitment— about 9 meetings a year, held after the service on the third Sunday of the month, plus some time communicating with the missions

COMMISSION

For an overseer, as God's steward, must be above reproach. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain, but hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined. He must hold firm to the trustworthy word as taught, so that he may be able to give instruction in sound doctrine and also to rebuke those who contradict it. —TITUS 1:7-9

Counseling CORNER

PROVIDENCE BIBLE CHURCH

Counseling Team: Carol Williams, Lesley Lezcano, Lena Johnson

On October 2nd and 3rd our team was able to virtually worship and learn, with thousands of others from all over the world, CCEF's Counseling Conference based on the theme, "Created to Draw Near". It was two sweet days full of equipping and fellowship as we were invited to explore our roles as priests.

To flesh out the theme a little more, Ed Welch has recently released a book of the same name and here is the summary:

"You are a royal priest. That Reality Will Change Your Life. Human beings are wired for connection. We long for deep relationships and real intimacy—both of which reflect our fundamental desire to be close to God. But all too often, whether because of our sin or our failures, we imagine that God prefers to keep his distance. In this book, Edward T. Welch shows us the purpose for which we were created: to be brought near to God as a kingdom of priests. He traces the priestly identity throughout the entire Bible, showing us how holiness leads to closeness to God. Through the blood of Jesus, God extends his invitation for all to draw near with open arms. And in his presence, we discover what it means to be truly human: known, unashamed, and wise, full of meaning, purpose, and abundant life."

The general sessions and breakout blocks dove deeper into this idea, providing both practical tools to use in the counseling room and such empowering gracious personal reminders of our own identity. Darby Strickland's breakout, "Repentance: Drawing Near to God and Others" was a favorite.

We all thought her push would be on personal repentance. Instead, we were taught how to look for genuine repentance in the counseling room from someone who has grievously offended another. She challenged us to start by questioning their salvation.

- Does this person need to repent, or do they need salvation?
- Are they showing Godly remorse or worldly remorse?
- Do they lament more over hurting someone else so deeply or do they lament the consequences their actions have caused?

Meanwhile, she also modeled a profoundly gracious response to the offended: "Of course you're still hurting. Surely you're angry. It's completely okay to have doubts right now."

This breakout provided me with conviction and healing. It powerfully displayed the power of the gospel to change lives.

The gospel alone contains the power to convict the offender to a point of Godly repentance and ultimately reconciliation and restore the offended to a place of peace, healing and forgiveness.

It is our honor to serve in our Counseling Ministry and use our role as counselor and priest to bring God's glory while bringing the power of the gospel to His people!
